GENERAL COMMENTS

Wellington House is a very attractive detached house that has been lovingly restored by the current owners to a very high standard. Located in a quiet hamlet just minutes from the coast and sandy beaches, the whole property enjoys privacy and a sunny aspect with lovely countryside views from the rear. The house is beautifully appointed with quality kitchen and luxurious bathrooms and has well proportioned rooms with large windows that afford plenty of natural light. A front tarmac drive provides parking for at least six cars with ample space for a motor home, boat etc, the detached double garage has storage in the loft and an inspection pit. This is a substantial building which has potential for conversion subject to consent.

The accommodation includes five double bedrooms and family bathroom on the first floor, the master and guest bedrooms have en suite shower rooms. The first floor bedrooms are carpeted whilst the bathroom and en suites are tiled. The ground floor includes a very large open plan living space, perfect for modern day living with sitting area that has a woodburner and stunning kitchen/dining room. In addition on the ground floor are two reception rooms currently a study and playroom, utility room and cloakroom. Two sets of French doors in the kitchen/dining room open into the rear garden onto the large terrace. The majority of the renovation work was finished in 2021 so all of the double glazed windows and doors, oil fired boiler and central heating system were new at this time. An internal viewing is essential.

LOCATION

Treworga is an unspoiled rural hamlet lying within the heart of the Roseland Peninsula and part of an area scheduled as being of Outstanding Natural Beauty and renowned for its many scenic attractions. The beaches at Carne and Pendower are within a few minutes driving distance from the property and all the harbourside villages such as Portloe, Portholland, Portscatho and St. Mawes are all within a few miles. The tidal Saltings at nearby Ruanlanihorne at the head of the creek are also a significant local feature and there are good sailing facilities at Percuil and St. Mawes. The City of Truro with its Cathedral and fine shopping centre is about twelve miles away.
