GENERAL COMMENTS

41 Carvoza Road is a very attractive semi detached Victorian house located in a sought after position within Truro city. The house has been in the same family ownership for over forty years and retains many wonderful period features including high ceilings, traditional sliding sash windows (with some secondary glazing), feature fireplaces and superb tessellated tiled floor in the entrance hall. The house backs onto the playing fields of Archbishop Benson primary school and there are magnificent far reaching views from the rear towards Kenwyn including Kenwyn Church. The house has been very well cared for but is now in need of modernisation and offers tremendous potential. The accommodation has a conventional layout over two floors and briefly comprises: entrance hall, sitting room, lounge, dining room, kitchen/breakfast room on the ground floor. The first floor has five bedrooms wet room and separate w.c. The sitting room, lounge and two front bedrooms have bay windows that afford plenty of natural light and are a feature from outside setting this house and next door apart from neighbouring properties with their unique "castle" appearance. The rear garden enjoys a sunny aspect and is surprisingly private and enclosed, therefore perfect for children and pets. A driveway provides parking and there is a garage with electric door and beyond this is a workshop. The house has mains gas central heating and the electrics have been upgraded in very recent years. There is no onward chain and an internal viewing is essential.
