THE PROPERTY

33 Chycoose Parc is a spacious and beautifully extended detached modern home, enjoying superb water views across Restronguet Creek towards Restronguet Point and upriver to Devoran. The outlook is truly exceptional, providing an ever-changing and picturesque backdrop.

Deceptive from the outside, the property offers far more accommodation than first apparent, having been significantly enlarged from its original design. The layout comprises four bedrooms, with the principal suite occupying the first floor and benefitting from an en-suite shower room. Further accommodation includes a generous lounge, a well-appointed kitchen/dining room, utility room, cloakroom and family bathroom.

Externally, the property features an enclosed garden enjoying a sunny aspect and delightful creek views, along with driveway parking for two vehicles and a double garage. The home is double glazed throughout and warmed by oil-fired central heating.

LOCATION

The hamlets of Point and Penpol form a sought-after waterside community approximately five miles south of Truro, perfectly positioned along the picturesque Restronguet Creek. Highly regarded by sailing and boating enthusiasts, the creek provides direct access to the renowned waters of the Fal Estuary (Carrick Roads), with a public slipway within easy reach. The surrounding area is rich in natural beauty, offering scenic walks along the historic tramway and access to the popular Bissoe cycle trail, which follows the creek through to Devoran and onwards to the north coast at Portreath.

Nearby Devoran, set at the head of the creek, offers a range of everyday amenities including a pub, church, primary school and doctor's surgery, with further facilities available in Carnon Downs. The Cathedral city of Truro provides an excellent selection of shops, restaurants and bars, along with a mainline railway station to London Paddington and cultural attractions such as the Hall for Cornwall. The historic harbour town of Falmouth lies around eight miles away, while the charming village of Feock, with its proximity to Loe Beach, National Trust gardens at Trellisick and access via the King Harry Ferry to the Roseland Peninsula, further enhances the appeal of this exceptional coastal location.
