GENERAL COMMENTS

39 Park View is an individual and remarkably spacious detached bungalow, offering well-proportioned and highly adaptable accommodation arranged entirely on one level. With four bedrooms and generous reception space, the layout is equally suited to family living, retirement or working from home. A welcoming entrance hall runs through the heart of the property, connecting the principal rooms. The generous lounge centres around a fireplace and opens both onto the rear patio and into the conservatory. Overlooking the garden, the conservatory forms a bright additional sitting area.

The impressive 22'5" kitchen/dining room is fitted with an extensive range of painted Shaker-style cabinetry, timber work surfaces and integrated appliances. There is ample space for a substantial dining table, while the window at the far end captures the elevated outlook across Truro towards the Cathedral, viaduct and surrounding countryside.

The principal bedroom is a spacious double with an en-suite shower room. Three further bedrooms are served by the family bathroom, while the separate study opens directly onto the garden and could equally serve as a snug or hobbies room. The mature rear garden is a defining feature of the property. Rising gently away from the bungalow, it is arranged over several tiers with lawns, established shrubs, specimen trees and a choice of seating areas. A paved terrace immediately behind the bungalow is ideal for outdoor dining, while the substantial detached timber workshop offers excellent storage, hobby or workspace.
