GENERAL COMMENTS

Copperstones is a substantial detached modern house located in a very quiet setting within the sought after village of Grampound located between Truro and St Austell. The house was built to a very high standard by the current owners approximately twenty years ago. It has been a cherished family home for all of this time but is now too large and the vendors are looking to downsize. The house has handsome natural stone elevations underneath a slate roof with double glazed windows and underfloor heating throughout. The house occupies a very large plot with fabulous mature gardens that are private and enclosed that are a feature of the house and perfect for children and pets.

A driveway provides parking for several cars and an arched undercover open garage has additional parking for four cars.

The house itself is well presented and all rooms overlook the gardens and benefit from underfloor heating. There are three bedrooms and bathroom on the first floor, the master and guest rooms are en suite. The ground floor includes an entrance sun room, large sitting room, kitchen/dining room, huge conservatory, utility, cloakroom and fourth bedroom/study.

The house is sold with no chain and an internal viewing is essential.

LOCATION

The village of Grampound lies on the A390 between Truro and St Austell and offers a variety of local facilities for daily needs including shop and cafe, church, primary school, pub and village hall. The village has the benefit of a regular bus service and is also close to the picturesque attractions of the Roseland Peninsula and the south Cornish coast. The city of Truro with its fine Cathedral, major shopping centre and main line railway link to London (Paddington) is about nine miles. St. Austell is about six miles.
