GENERAL COMMENTS

Trevilla is a delightful period cottage located close to the centre of Probus which is one of the most sought after villages in mid Cornwall. The cottage retains many wonderful period features including exposed beams, canopied ceilings and feature fireplace in the sitting room. The property is approached from Chapel Street over a brick driveway that provides parking. The cottage enjoys a sunny, south facing aspect and the garden enjoys privacy and sun all day. Internally the cottage is very well presented and has been improved greatly in recent years with newly fitted kitchen and shower room. The accommodation includes three bedrooms and shower room on the first floor with sitting room and kitchen/dining room downstairs. The property has double glazed windows and mains gas central heating. An internal viewing is essential.

LOCATION

Probus is a thriving community approximately six miles east of Truro and a little further west of St. Austell. The village has an excellent range of everyday facilities including Parish Church, public house, primary school, farm shop, general stores with post office, village hall, Chinese takeaway and even a fish and chip shop. A very regular bus service connects to both St. Austell and Truro and here there are a wider range of facilities including banks, building societies, schools, colleges and main line railway link to London (Paddington). The village is also easily accessible to the picturesque Roseland Peninsula and many of the beaches along the south Cornish coast.

In greater detail the accommodation comprises (all measurements are approximate):
