LOCATION

The location is very convenient indeed, just 1.5 miles from the popular village of Perranporth, with easy access to the A30, giving access to wider Cornwall. Newquay airport is also only 13 miles away. The location is superb for families, with Perranporth beach on the door step and falling within the catchment for Richard Lander Secondary School. There is also planning permission for a brand new secondary school to be constructed in nearby Perranporth, which would then be within walking distance of the property.

Bolingey has a popular public house and is located in a picturesque valley setting. Further down the road, Perranporth is renowned for its three mile long golden sandy beach and hosts a variety of shops for daily needs, plus cafes, restaurants and beach shops. Truro is approximately nine miles away and is the capital of the county known for its excellent shopping centre, fine selection of restaurants and bars, the Hall for Cornwall for year round entertainment and the main line railway link to London (Paddington).

SERVICES

Mains water, gas and drainage are believed to be in the road but purchasers must make their own enquiries to confirm this.
