GENERAL REMARKS AND LOCATION

Robin Hill is virtually in the centre of the tiny village of Ruanlanihorne and yet it is remarkably private. It is one of three individual properties approached by a private lane (a right of way) and with the bungalow set within a relatively level plot where it takes advantage of a lovely view out over the river saltings to the far wooded banks of the upper Fal estuary. Built in the 1960's the property has been the cherished home of the late owner for about 40 years and whilst well maintained and cared-for it now affords a superb opportunity to upgrade and possibly extend (subject to consent) to suit the needs of a new occupant. The garden is a particular delight and whilst carefully planted with a host of mature specimen shrubs there is still an open aspect to take advantage of the far reaching view.

Ruanlanihorne is a tiny village situated at the head of the Ruan River, in an area known for its scenic countryside and part of an area scheduled as being an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. There is just a pub and church within the village but the larger villages of Veryan and Tregony are near-by and easily accessible. Between them they offer a wide range of facilities including Primary and Secondary Schools, pubs, village halls, children's playing field/parks, village shops with post offices, a hairdressers, a Sports and Social Club with cricket field, tennis courts and indoor and outdoor bowling green.

The coastal village of Portscatho also offers a range of shops and facilities including a village shop with post office and off licence, butchers, art galleries and the Plume Of Feathers public house. There is also the waterside Tatams Coffee Hut with its outside sitting area and Tatams Taverna with wood fired oven offering takeaway's. Within walking distance of Portscatho is the renowned Hidden Hut that is perched just above Porthcurnick Beach, with either takeaway or outside dining available, with the superb vista across Porthcurnick Beach and out to sea. There is also a Doctors Surgery and Village Hall.

The city of Truro with its cathedral and fine shopping centre is about 11 miles away.

THE BUNGALOW

The bungalow is of conventional cavity wall construction with mainly rendered elevations under a concrete tiled roof. Windows have replacement double glazing and there is a comprehensive system of oil fired central heating with an outside boiler. The accommodation affords 3 bedrooms, a bathroom and additional shower room, a kitchen which has an Aga and is open plan to a dining room, sitting room and also a sun lounge/conservatory. Whilst ideal in its present form as a retirement home there is also considerable scope to extend the property (subject to consent) and possibly create dormers within the roof space to take advantage of the lovely view. Overall it is a property with enormous scope.

In greater detail the accommodation comprises (all measurements are approximate):

SUN LOUNGE/CONSERVATORY

8'11" x 9'1" (2.74 x 2.77)
Double glazed and with tiled floor and electric panel heater.

HALLWAY

with radiator, fitted shelving and built-in cupboard.

SHOWER ROOM

6'8" x 5'6" (2.05 x 1.68)
with corner shower cubicle and wash basin. Part ceramic tiling, fitted mirror, courtesy light with shaver socket and extractor fan. Radiator.

SEPARATE WC

with wall mounted electric fire.

OUTSIDE

From the shared driveway a vehicular gate opens into the property and a tarmac drive leads up to a detached GARAGE (19'8" x 9'10") standing alongside the Bungalow and with the drive providing additional parking.

The GARDENS are a particular feature and a level sweep of lawn to the front of the bungalow is dominated by a magnificent magnolia and edged with a variety of other mature shrubs including camellias, azaleas, myrtle, roses, agapanthus and a weeping birch. A paved terrace extends immediately outside the sun lounge and there is a further paved terrace in the lower section of lawn. At the rear there are further areas of lawn, box hedging, more specimen shrubs, conifers and small corner patio for sitting out. Farmland extends beyond the boundary.

There are lovely view as previously mentioned.

SERVICES

Mains electricity and mains water. Private drainage. Oil storage tank for Aga and central heating.
NB. The electrical circuit, appliances and central heating system have not been tested by the agents.
