THE PROPERTY

Greenacre is a beautifully presented detached bungalow occupying a generous plot in the sought-after village of Zelah, ideally positioned between Truro and the north Cornish coast. Offering spacious and highly flexible accommodation, the property is particularly well suited to families, downsizers, multi-generational living or those seeking additional work-from-home or guest accommodation.

The main bungalow is light, welcoming and well arranged, with a generous lounge featuring a fireplace and attractive outlook over the gardens. The kitchen is fitted with a comprehensive range of units and work surfaces, with adjoining dining space creating a practical and sociable layout for everyday living. There is also a useful utility room and separate W.C.

The bedroom accommodation is equally well proportioned, with three bedrooms served by a family bathroom. The principal bedroom is a comfortable double, while the additional bedrooms offer excellent flexibility for children, guests, hobbies or home working.

A major feature of Greenacre is the self-contained one-bedroom annexe, which provides superb versatility. Arranged with a conservatory entrance, open-plan living/kitchen area, double bedroom and shower room, it is ideal for extended family, visiting guests, independent living or additional lifestyle space.

Externally, the property enjoys a beautiful lawned garden, bordered by mature planting and offering an excellent sense of privacy. The garden is a wonderful space for children. A paved terrace provides space for outdoor seating and dining, while the overall plot is both generous and manageable.

In addition to the main accommodation and annexe, there is a detached timber-lined outbuilding currently used as a gym. This space would also lend itself well to a home office, studio, hobby room or treatment space, depending on requirements. A garage and driveway parking further enhance the practicality of the property, while a range of solar panels and battery storage add to the home's appeal.

Greenacre enjoys a peaceful village setting within Zelah, a well-regarded and conveniently located village with excellent access to the A30, Truro and the north Cornish coastline. Coastal destinations such as Perranporth are within easy reach, making this an ideal home for those seeking village living with excellent connections to both countryside and coast.

LOCATION

Zelah is a small village mid-way between Truro and the north Cornish coast at Perranporth and just a very short distance from the main A30 road. Local facilities include a pub within the nearby villages of Shortlanesend and Goonhavern offering a wider range of daily facilities including a shop and post office, pubs and primary schools. The proximity to the A30 provides easy access to all parts of the county.

Perranporth is a very popular town and is a great surfers paradise with its wonderful expanse of sandy beach and dramatic scenery along the cliffs. Perranporth has an excellent range of shops and day to day amenities including butchers, bakers, supermarket, school and there are regular bus services to the nearby cathedral city of Truro as well as other surrounding towns and villages.

The village of St. Agnes has long become a favourite "hot spot" of Cornwall, not surprising because of its position on the north Cornish coast, its homely village atmosphere combined with its easy commuting distance to Truro. It is a thriving community offering a wide range of facilities including shops, post office, church, pubs and primary school as well as a selection of restaurants/cafes and hotels.
