THE PROPERTY

12 Ashleigh Way is a two bedroom semi-detached house situated in a quiet cul-de-sac setting within the popular village of Probus. Well presented throughout, in all, the accommodation comprises; entrance porch, sitting room and kitchen to the ground floor with two double bedrooms and a shower room to the first floor. There is a driveway to the front providing off road parking with a completely enclosed rear garden laid to patio and chippings for low maintenance. The back garden enjoys a sunny aspect throughout the day and there is a timber storage shed to the side whereby there is potential to extend or erect a garage subject to the necessary planning consent.

PROBUS

Probus is a thriving community approximately six miles east of Truro and a little further west of St. Austell. The village has an excellent range of everyday facilities including Parish Church, public house, primary school, farm shop, general stores with post office, village hall, Chinese takeaway and even a fish and chip shop. A very regular bus service connects to both St. Austell and Truro and here there are a wider range of facilities including banks, building societies, schools, colleges and main line railway link to London (Paddington). The village is also easily accessible to the picturesque Roseland Peninsula and many of the beaches along the south Cornish coast.

In greater detail the accommodation comprises (all measurements are approximate):
