TRESILLIAN

Tresillian is a sizeable village community about three miles east of Truro. It is a long village straddling the A390 which runs parallel to the tidal Tresillian River. The area is well known for scenic attractions with many walk-ways in the area including along the edge of the river with its abundance of wildlife and shore bird towards St Clements and Malpas. There is a pub, service station with good local shop which caters for everyday needs and post office. The village also has a church and chapel and village hall which supports a range of social activities. There is a regular bus service which runs between Truro and St. Austell. The sandy beaches of Pendower and Carne on the Roseland Peninsula are within a twenty minute drive. Waitrose is within a five minute drive.
