GENERAL COMMENTS

A very attractive period cottage located in a quiet position close to the centre of this much sought after village. The house has been extended from its original form in a very sympathetic way and retains much charm and character. Period features include a splendid inglenook fireplace with clome oven in the dining room, Victorian fireplace in the sitting room, exposed beam ceiling with modern additions such as double glazing and solar panels which heat the hot water. The seller of the property has arranged for four new electric heaters to be installed in August. The accommodation includes two double bedrooms and shower room on the first floor with sitting room, dining room, kitchen, utility and a cloakroom downstairs. Outside is private parking for a single vehicle and a pleasant enclosed front garden. There are views over Ladock valley from the front.

LADOCK

Ladock is a thriving community approximately six miles east of Truro city with a good range of village facilities including public house, primary school, parish church, and superb village hall with regular clubs and activities. Probus is within a couple of miles of where there are further facilities and the Cathedral city of Truro which is renowned for its excellent shops, restaurants and main line railway line linking to London (Paddington). Ladock is ideally located for access to the south and north Cornish coasts and Newquay airport is approximately thirteen miles to the north.
