GENERAL COMMENTS

19 Fore Street is a middle terraced character cottage which is believed to date from the mid 18th century and situated in the heart of the village, a detached single garage and enclosed rear garden. The property has been a cherished home for 20 years although it is fair to say that it is now in need of general updating and modernisation throughout however it offers tremendous potential. Interestingly, the property is not listed unlike many of the properties along Fore Street.

In all the accommodation comprises an entrance hall, sitting room, dining room, kitchen, and garden room (potential for bedroom 3) to the ground floor with two bedrooms and bathroom to the first floor. The garden room has been used as an occasional bedroom although it offers a variety of uses or alternatively remodelling to make a larger kitchen opening to the gardens.

DISCOVER TREGONY

Set at the top of the River Fal, Tregony is a historic village that once thrived as a bustling port in bygone days. Today, it offers a blend of community spirit, modern amenities, and natural beauty.

The village is well-served with essential facilities, including a mini supermarket with a post office, a dental practice, an optician, a café, a hair salon, and the ever-popular local pub, The Kings Arms.

Tregony is also an excellent choice for families, with two nursery schools, a junior school, and The Roseland Academy—a highly regarded secondary school with an outstanding reputation.

For those seeking leisure and recreation, the village offers a wealth of activities. The large sports hall hosts badminton and five-a-side football, and the scenic banks of the River Fal offer picturesque walks extending as far as Grampond.

At the heart of the village lies a vibrant social club with its own sports field and clubhouse. It plays host to pétanque matches, open-air music events, and the traditional annual Tregony Heavy Horse Show. There are even plans to introduce baseball to the community.

Medical needs are well catered for by Roseland Surgeries, with one of their three local medical centres conveniently located in Tregony.

Beyond the village, the Roseland Peninsula offers a wealth of attractions—from welcoming cafés and lively pubs to award-winning coastal restaurants. The area is a haven for walkers, with numerous scenic trails and much of the coastline protected by the National Trust.

Whether you're looking for a place to raise a family, enjoy retirement, or simply escape to the Cornish countryside, Tregony offers the perfect blend of heritage, community, and countryside charm.
