Non-Standard Property Features To Note: Please note that the property does not have a completion certificate. However the Planning department at Tendring District council have confirmed in writing the following:

'various completion inspections were carried out in 2005 resolving issues arising from the build. Therefore the work was completed on site to what was considered to be compliance with the Building Regulations. Unfortunately it is not possible after this considerable period of time to issue a Building Regulations approval and therefore a completion certificate but hopefully this letter will suffice.'
