The first floor hosts the remaining three bedrooms, all well-proportioned and filled with natural light. The master bedroom particularly benefits from the spectacular views overlooking the garden and Lancaster Canal, providing a peaceful retreat. The landing itself is a standout feature, enhanced beautifully by a striking arched feature window positioned above the staircase, adding further charm and character to the home. Completing this floor is the spacious three-piece family bathroom, fitted with both a separate bath and shower, alongside an additional separate WC for added practicality for growing families.

Externally, the property continues to impress. Vehicle access is from both ends of Cottam Lane (Ingol and Ashton) via a roadway restricted to residents and their visitors, the home enjoys a wonderfully private setting. To the front is a gated driveway providing parking for up to two cars, alongside a detached double garage offering excellent storage or workshop potential. The side yard features a lovely decked seating area with steps leading up to bedroom four, enhancing the flexibility of the home's layout. To the rear lies the true centrepiece of the property — the spectacular landscaped gardens that back directly onto the canal. Beautifully maintained lawn areas are complemented by a charming man-made stream that gently flows towards an eye-catching waterfall feature, creating a wonderfully tranquil atmosphere. A raised seating area provides a secluded spot to relax and admire both the home and gardens, while the wooden canal-side walkway offers the perfect opportunity for mooring a canal boat, adding an additional lifestyle element rarely found with homes of this kind.
