Upon entering the property, you are welcomed into the spacious front lounge, which seamlessly flows into the open-plan dining area. This inviting space boasts a stunning, traditionally styled fireplace, integrated storage cabinets, and picturesque views to the front. Moving past the staircase, which offers ample storage beneath, you step into the characterful dining room, where the original stone flooring and a circa 1880 working Victorian Range oven take centre stage. This room is perfect for entertaining, with ample space for a family dining table or a cosy sitting area. Completing the ground floor is the country-style kitchen, designed to be in keeping with the home's rustic charm, featuring a stable-style door that leads out to the rear patio.

Moving up to the first floor, you'll find the first landing area that is a cut through to the second floor. The second floor houses two of the home's three bedrooms. Both bedrooms are generous doubles, with the master benefitting from a traditional fireplace, integrated storage, and a stylish three-piece en-suite. The beautifully appointed family bathroom is also located on this floor, featuring a freestanding bath with an overhead shower, adding a touch of elegance to the space.

The loft has been cleverly converted into a versatile third bedroom, complete with integrated fold-out beds, making it an excellent space for guests or a multi-functional home office. A unique feature of this room is the hatch opening in the floor, which reveals a laundry drying space—a thoughtful addition for practicality. The staircase leading to this floor also benefits from an airlock system, designed to regulate heat efficiently between levels.

Externally, residents of Greenfield Terrace have access to parking in the nearby pubs car park, providing convenient off-road parking. A charming open walkway leads to the front of the home, where a small lawned space adds to its picturesque kerb appeal. To the rear, a lovely patio area offers breathtaking canal-side views, making it the perfect spot for outdoor relaxation. Additional storage can be found under both the patio and the property itself. Beyond the patio, an extra garden space is available, currently rented for a small annual fee, allowing for further enjoyment of the outdoor surroundings.
