LOCATION

The village of Eardington lies just 2 miles South of the market town of Bridgnorth along the B4555. The village offers a nature reserve, regular bus service and a village hall which hosts community events throughout the year. Of particular note the vintage Severn Valley Steam Railway runs through making this the ideal location for train enthusiasts. The village is surrounded by glorious Shropshire countryside enjoying an abundance of river and rail walks, riding and cycling routes.

ACCOMMODATION

This Grade II Listed period cottage has a wealth of character and provides most spacious rooms. The modernised property has been a successful rental for many years, and has potential for further enhancement in this beautiful, mature setting. Upon entering the property, the kitchen is fitted with a range of base cabinets and drawers with worktops over, and an inset sink unit. The kitchen is equipped with a ceramic hob and extractor fan above, a built-in oven and grill, and additional fitted cupboards complete with a tiled floor. Adjoining the kitchen is a breakfast area, along with a convenient guest cloakroom and WC. Double doors open into a spacious lounge and dining area, enjoying natural light from windows to both the front and rear elevations. A key feature of this room is the large inglenook fireplace housing a wood-burning stove, complemented by an exposed beamed ceiling. There is access to a cellar.

Continuing through the ground floor, there is a separate sitting room featuring a beamed ceiling and another exposed fireplace housing a wood-burning stove, with windows looking out to both front and rear aspects. A further reception room provides an ideal study or home office space.

Stairs lead up to the first-floor landing, where there is fitted storage along with access to three well proportioned bedrooms and the main bathroom.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached via a private driveway set back off the road. The mature gardens extend from the front to the side and rear of the property, offering a beautifully established outdoor space with a variety of trees, shrubs, and planting that provide both privacy and year-round interest.

Within the grounds, there is a detached outhouse, currently used as a utility room and for general storage.
