LOCATION

Situated within Low Town, this highly commutable location enjoys convenient access to both the A442 and A458, making it ideal for commuters and families alike. The historic market town of Bridgnorth offers an exceptional range of amenities and attractions, many of which can be reached on foot. Renowned for its character and charm, Bridgnorth is home to an array of historic architecture, listed buildings and beautiful churches, all set alongside the picturesque banks of the River Severn. Residents can enjoy scenic riverside walks, excellent cycling routes and access to surrounding countryside, providing the perfect balance between town and country living.

A variety of popular local attractions are nearby, including Bridgnorth Golf Club, Severn Park, Cliff Railway and the renowned Severn Valley Railway. The bustling High Street offers a diverse selection of independent shops, cafés, pubs and restaurants, complemented by regular farmers' markets and a variety of themed community events throughout the year. The town also benefits from excellent everyday amenities, including supermarkets, healthcare services, a hospital, leisure facilities and a wide range of sports clubs.

Families are particularly well served by a strong selection of respected primary and secondary schools, while entertainment options include the town's charming art deco cinema and the Theatre on the Steps, which hosts an exciting programme of drama, music and dance performances throughout the year.

ACCOMMODATION

Accessed via St John's Street, a shared passageway leads to the main entrance. A stable door opens into the galley kitchen, which is fitted with a range of matching base and wall units, sink unit, a built-in oven with ceramic hob and extractor hood above, together with provision for a dishwasher. Leading off the kitchen is a useful store area with space for an upright fridge freezer and windows to the side elevation. Continuing through the property is the ground floor bathroom, fitted with a bath and shower attachment over, WC, and wash hand basin.

There are two interlinking ground floor reception rooms having feature fireplaces, ideally suited as a dining room leading through to the lounge, which benefits from a sash window to the front elevation. Further doors provide additional access to the side passageway and access to the cellar.

Stairs rise to the first floor, which accommodates two well-proportioned double bedrooms, both featuring fitted cupboards. From the landing, a further staircase rises to the second floor, where the principal bedroom and adjoining dressing room is located. This room features a beamed vaulted ceiling, skylights, and a windows to the front and rear elevations.
