LOCATION

Located in the picturesque Severn Valley, the popular village of Alveley lies to the south-east of the historic market town of Bridgnorth. The village enjoys a thriving community and offers an excellent range of everyday amenities, including a convenience store, regular bus services, and a choice of village pubs and eateries.

Alveley also benefits from a well-regarded primary school, a recreation ground with a children's play area, medical practice, a parish church, and a part-time post office. A variety of sports and community facilities are available, including a tennis club, cricket club, and numerous active social and community groups.

Nearby is the Severn Valley Country Park, which features a visitor centre and café, and enjoys a beautiful setting alongside the River Severn. The park also has its own halt on the Severn Valley Railway and provides access to an extensive network of scenic walking and cycling routes, making it an ideal location for outdoor enthusiasts.

ACCOMMODATION

The front door opens into the lounge with a window overlooking the front elevation and a feature fireplace incorporating a log-burning stove. Beyond is the breakfast kitchen, fitted with a range of matching base and wall units with complementary work surfaces incorporating a sink unit. There is space and provision for a range of appliances, together with a useful understairs storage cupboard. A window overlooks the rear garden, while a door provides direct access outside.

Stairs rise to the first floor landing, where there is access to the partly boarded loft space via a pull-down ladder. The accommodation comprises two generous double bedrooms and a family bathroom fitted with a white suite comprising a WC, wash hand basin and a panelled bath with shower over.

OUTSIDE

Approached off Daddlebrook Road, the property benefits from a tarmac driveway providing private off-road parking directly to the front.

To the rear is a generous garden, which is predominantly laid to lawn and enjoys a private, sunny aspect. Enclosed by a fence boundary the garden also features a paved patio terrace, together with a garden shed providing useful storage. A pedestrian right of way exists for the neighbouring properties.
