WELCOME TO CHELTENHAM

The Finest Regency Town in England

WITH ITS ELEGANT Regency architecture, numerous parks and stylish shops and restaurants, Cheltenham is the jewel in the Cotswolds' crown. Since its growth in the eighteenth century as a place to "take the waters", the town has been renowned as a place of health and fitness, graceful living and country pursuits. The Daily Telegraph recently voted it the best place in the country to bring up a family.

The newly-constructed properties at SOVEREIGN VIEW are the perfect family homes, located on the fringes of the highly sought-after Battledown estate. Nestled in a private, gated enclave just off Harp Hill, they enjoy the most beautiful, open views of Cleeve Hill, close to some of the best riding and walking countryside. Each property sits on a generous, secluded plot, yet is only ten minutes from Cheltenham's cultural centre and some exceptional schools.

FESTIVALS, FOOD AND FINE LIVING

Cultural Capital of the Cotswolds

LITERATURE, horse racing, food, jazz – and even gin – Cheltenham’s array of festivals is unrivalled. The Literary Festival in October draws crowds eager to hear the world’s best known authors, and the National Hunt season gets going in March with the Cheltenham Festival.

Cheltenham was recently described by The Independent as a “design destination” and it’s easy to see why: the understated sophistication of its Regency architecture and iconic garden squares and parks; its boutique restaurants, premium shops, theatres and museums; and of course, the majestic Cotswolds, with all their typically English charm, are just a stone’s throw away.

Notable recent arrivals in town are John Lewis & Partners, an addition to the already wide range of designer brands, and The Ivy, opposite Montpellier Gardens. Le Champignon Sauvage tempts diners with its Michelin star, and there are many other contemporary places to eat such as No 131, Prithvi and Purslane which offer diverse cuisines and styles.

The town’s independent schools include the world-famous Cheltenham Ladies’ College, Cheltenham College and Dean Close School, all of which are in and around the town centre. St Edward’s Catholic preparatory and senior schools are a short distance from Sovereign View. Three local state secondary schools are rated as outstanding by OFSTED.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

Peerless quality, contemporary luxury

SOVEREIGN VIEW is a development of substantial, Architect-designed homes in a semi-rural setting on the edge of the desirable Battledown Estate. The development sits in an exclusive, gated enclave off Harp Hill, with electric gates at the entrance to each property.

The five-bedroom properties offer elegant, open plan living spaces on the first floor, with spacious roof terraces wrapping round the house, from which the view of Cleeve Hill is captivating in all seasons.

Each kitchen is individually designed and manufactured to our specifications, featuring integrated Siemens appliances, remote control LED feature lighting, an instant boiling water tap and integrated coffee machine.

Full height glass shower screens and high-specification fittings lend our bathrooms and en-suites a real wow factor; each house has at least three en-suite bathrooms.

We incorporate CCTV and smart technology into all our properties and offer a range of smart home options, which can be discussed with our sales team.

These three spectacular, individual properties truly present a unique opportunity to acquire one of Cheltenham's most exciting new homes.
