Pontrhydfendigaid is an unspoilt rural village located 15 miles inland from Aberystwyth and just 6 miles North of the market town of Tregaron. Both the aforementioned towns have a good range of amenities to include secondary schools. Local facilities include the village shop, primary school and public house.

The village lies on the River Teifi in an area steeped in history ruins of the Cistercian Strata Florida Abbey is within a mile of the village and the popular attractions of Devils Bridge and Teifi Pools on the foothills of the Cambrian Mountains are also nearby.

The commodious accommodation is highlighted on the attached floor plan. On the first floor there are 3 double bedrooms, bathroom and a spacious landing which is utilised as an office area (see photo). Prospective purchasers will also be attracted to the large open plan kitchen/ dining Room, spacious lounge and showeroom. The property has recently been re-roofed. Externally, the outbuilding is multipurpose, also immediately to the rear there is a decked garden area and to the side of the house there is parking for at least 2 vehicles.
