Property

The Old Bell House is a charming property in the heart of the village. The deceptively spacious accommodation comprises; large entrance hall, predominantly double height sitting room with mezzanine bedroom above at one end, door to rear hall giving access to the rear garden, steps up to utility room with washing machine and freezer. Off the main hall is the kitchen with gas hob and double oven, dishwasher and fridge. There is a very spacious second reception room on the ground floor currently used as a dining/family room, this could be used as an additional bedroom. On the first floor the landing gives access to the mezzanine bedroom, family bathroom and large master bedroom with built in wardrobes.

Outside is a lovely garden with seating area. Garden is not suitable for young children. Parking is on street. Gas central heating. Council tax band D. A well behaved pet will be considered. Available now for a minimum 12 month tenancy. N.B. the woodburner shown in the living room photos is not in operation.
