Occupying the entire top floor of this beautifully restored period building in the heart of Grantown on Spey, Apartment Five represents an exceptional fusion of heritage character and contemporary luxury. This elegant one-bedroom apartment has been completely redeveloped as part of the full refurbishment of Stonefield House, with every element of the design and construction meeting modern building and energy-efficiency standards. Internally, the finish is exemplary — the property has been fully insulated to current standards, rewired and replumbed throughout, and fitted with new double-glazed windows and doors for year-round comfort and efficiency. The stylish interior features a bright open-plan kitchen with contemporary units and space for appliances as well as a living and dining area with light streaming in from both sides, offering wonderful views across Grantown Square to the front and towards the Cromdale Hills at the rear. The apartment is fully floored with quality carpets and vinyl, and the shower room is beautifully finished with elegant full-height tiling, a modern suite, and chrome fittings. Practical touches such as recessed LED down lighting and a fire prevention sprinkler system ensure peace of mind and easy modern living. Externally, Apartment Five benefits from an allocated parking space with an EV charging point, a fenced private garden area, and access to a shared bike store, providing all the essentials for a contemporary Highland lifestyle in one of the Cairngorms' most desirable towns.
