Baideneath, West Terrace is an attractive ground floor apartment forming part of a traditional house divided into just two flats, enjoying a peaceful position within Kingussie and surrounded by mature garden grounds. The accommodation centres around a bright open-plan living and dining area, a comfortable room with laminate wood flooring and French doors opening directly to the garden, creating a lovely connection with the sheltered outdoor seating area. A striking exposed stone chimney breast with stove forms an appealing focal point, while there is space for both relaxed seating and everyday dining. The kitchen area is neatly arranged to one side and offers fitted timber units, worktop space, tiled splashback, oven, hob, sink and a large larder cupboard, with an adjoining recessed appliance area providing appliance space and storage. The inner hall has space and plumbing for a washing machine and a cupboard housing the hot water cylinder as well as doors leading to the shower room and the second bedroom. Bedroom one is a generous double room with a large picture window enjoying an open outlook across the gardens, village rooftops and hills beyond. Bedroom two is accessed via a small hallway with a storage wardrobe located off the main living area and is a comfortable additional bedroom, currently arranged with twin beds, and would also suit guests, family or flexible use. The shower room includes a WC, wash hand basin, corner shower enclosure, wall mirror, storage cabinet and opaque window. Outside, the property enjoys garden areas which are particularly attractive with gravel seating spaces, stone paths, planted borders, shrubs and hedging, all set against a scenic Highland backdrop, making this a charming and easily managed home. Kingussie

Living in Kingussie, tucked within the Cairngorms National Park, is an opportunity to embrace life amidst the serene landscapes of the Scottish Highlands. The town's stunning surroundings offer a peaceful and relaxing atmosphere, with the rolling hills, clear lochs, and lush woodlands just a step away. Outdoor enthusiasts revel in the ease of access to hiking, cycling, and walking trails, while wildlife lovers find joy in the proximity to the Highland Wildlife Park. Kingussie has a strong sense of community, offering a warm, friendly environment steeped in traditional Scottish culture. Regular events like music festivals and shinty foster camaraderie among residents, while a host of shops, cafes, and restaurants ensure everyday amenities and local culinary delights are never far away. The town is well-connected with larger cities through reliable transport links, making it convenient for work and leisure commutes. Historic attractions add a timeless charm to Kingussie, and excellent local schools make it a great place for families. Living here means experiencing a harmonious blend of natural beauty, rich cultural heritage, and modern comforts. It's not just a home; it's a lifestyle.

Transport Links

Kingussie boasts excellent transportation links that provide easy access to the rest of Scotland and the UK, making it an ideal location for commuters and travellers alike.

Rail: Kingussie railway station, a stop on the Highland Main Line, provides direct services to Edinburgh, Glasgow, and Inverness to the north, and as far south as London. This makes it extremely convenient for both local and long-distance travel.

Bus: The town is well-served by regular bus services offering routes to nearby towns and villages in the Scottish Highlands, including Aviemore and Inverness. These services are operated by Stagecoach Highlands.

Road: For those who prefer to drive, Kingussie is conveniently located on the A9, the longest road in Scotland. This major route runs from Perth, through Inverness, and all the way up to the far north coast at Thurso. This makes travelling north to Inverness or south to the central belt and beyond straightforward.

Air: For international travellers, the closest airport is Inverness Airport, which is approximately an hour's drive away and offers flights to destinations across the UK and Europe.

Active Travel: Lastly, for those who prefer a more active mode of travel, Kingussie's location in the heart of the Cairngorms National Park offers an extensive network of cycling and walking paths.

Whether you're commuting, exploring the stunning local area, or journeying further afield, Kingussie's impressive transport links ensure you're well-connected.
