73 Strathspey Drive is a detached two-bedroom bungalow enjoying an elevated position within Granttown on Spey, with superb views across the town towards the Cromdale Hills and a peaceful woodland backdrop to the rear. The property offers well arranged single-storey accommodation, a basement garage and garden ground, making it an appealing home for downsizers, couples and small families. The accommodation is entered via a central entrance hall, which provides access to the principal rooms and includes useful storage. The sitting room is a bright and generous space with a large front-facing window taking full advantage of the elevated outlook, together with a fireplace providing a traditional focal point. The kitchen and dining area sits to the rear and offers a practical arrangement of fitted units, work surfaces and space for appliances, with room for a dining table and pleasant views towards the garden and woodland. A rear vestibule provides direct external access, ideal for everyday use and there are two bedrooms, including a front-facing bedroom with open views and a second bedroom suitable as a guest room, study or additional double. The bathroom is fitted with bath, separate shower area, WC and wash hand basin. Beneath the house, the basement garage provides secure parking, storage or workshop space, particularly useful for bikes, tools and outdoor equipment. Outside, a gravelled driveway provides off-street parking, with garden areas to the front and rear. The rear aspect backs onto mature woodland, giving privacy and greenery, while the front outlook extends across Granttown on Spey to the surrounding hills. A well-positioned detached bungalow with excellent potential in a desirable Speyside setting. EPC D Council Tax D, Home report available online at massoncairns.com
