Set within a well-established residential area, this three-bedroom end-terraced property offers generous accommodation over two levels and presents an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking a home with strong potential to add value. The property comprises a bright and spacious sitting room with triple windows allowing for an abundance of natural light, a sizeable kitchen with good storage and worktop space offering clear scope for redesign, and a ground floor bathroom, while the upper level provides three well-proportioned bedrooms suitable for family living, guest accommodation and flexible home working. Externally, the property benefits from sizable garden grounds to the rear and side, providing excellent outdoor space with potential for landscaping or general improvement, along with off-street parking to the front. Although the property is currently in a more basic and dated condition a programme of upgrading and modernisation throughout would add value and it offers a solid layout and excellent footprint for redevelopment. It should be noted that the property is of non-traditional construction and is therefore not considered suitable security for standard mortgage lending, and as such is likely to appeal primarily to cash purchasers or buyers utilising specialist finance. Overall, this is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a spacious home with significant potential in a convenient and established location.
