Set in the picturesque Highland village of Tomintoul, this substantial five-bedroom (one en-suite) detached home offers a rare opportunity to enjoy life in the heart of the Cairngorms National Park. With a generous plot of circa 0.2 acres, and flexible living space, it's the perfect choice for those seeking a peaceful rural lifestyle surrounded by some of Scotland's most spectacular scenery. The home's scale, layout, and location provide an excellent foundation to create a home tailored to your style. Step inside via the welcoming entrance vestibule and into the bright, spacious sitting room – a comfortable space for both family time and entertaining. There is a well-proportioned kitchen and separate dining room, ideal for gathering around the table, while a practical utility room offers direct garden access. The ground floor also features two versatile bedrooms, one with an en-suite shower room perfect for family or guests, along with a family bathroom. Upstairs, a generous landing opens to three further bedrooms, including the principal bedroom with charming village and countryside views, served by a family bathroom. The thoughtful layout ensures plenty of space for family life or visiting friends. Outside, the sizeable garden is fenced and mainly laid to lawn, framed by mature trees and planting. A patio provides a sunny spot for outdoor dining or morning coffee and there is ample off-street parking for multiple vehicles. From your doorstep, explore scenic walks, wildlife, and the friendly village community. With space, potential, and a setting that's hard to match, this is an ideal opportunity to create your dream Highland home. EPC Rating C, Council Tax Band E. Tomintoul

Tomintoul is the Eastern Gateway to the Cairngorms National Park and has the reputation of being the highest village in the Highlands at 1165 ft (350m) centred round a picturesque square and situated near the Lecht Ski Resort Centre on the scenic route between Grantown on Spey and Royal Deeside. It is the largest village in the Glenlivet area supporting B&B's, a post office and general stores, art studios, craft, gift and malt whisky shops.

Tomintoul also has its own distillery, "the Tomintoul", which made the Guinness Book of Records for producing "The Largest Bottle of Scotch Whisky in The World" - at 105.3 litres. There are also three more stills, "The Tamnavulin", "The Braeval" and "The Glenlivet" within a few miles.

The area is surrounded by the mountain ranges of the Cromdales, the Ladder Hills and the Cairngorms, facilitating spectacular views, walks and other outdoor pursuits, including wildlife appreciation, salmon and trout fishing on the nearby River Avon, mountain biking on many trails and nearby bike Glenlivet and hill walking a plenty.

The nearby Lecht Ski Centre 2090 provides winter sports and in the summer has quad biking and go-carts.

Transport Links

Located in the heart of the Highlands, Tomintoul offers a number of convenient travel options for local, regional, and international travel.

Road: Tomintoul is well-connected via road with the A939, a major scenic route running through Speyside, providing easy access to both Aberdeen to the east and Inverness to the north.

Air: The nearest airports are Inverness Airport (approximately 43 miles away) and Aberdeen International Airport (approximately 56 miles away), offering both domestic and international flights.

Rail: The nearest railway station is Aviemore (around 27 miles away), which is on the main line from Inverness to London, providing connections to major cities across the UK.

Public Transport: There are regular bus services that run through Glenlivet connecting it to neighbouring towns and villages.

For schooling, Tomintoul falls within the Moray Council area, which provides a comprehensive education system. Primary education is available at Tomintoul Primary School, a small but well-regarded school located right in Tomintoul. For secondary education, pupils typically attend Speyside High School in Aberlour, which is approximately 21 miles away and offers a broad curriculum.

For further education, the University of the Highlands and Islands offers a range of courses and has several campuses throughout the Highlands, with the nearest being in Elgin and Inverness. Other universities in Aberdeen and Dundee are available.
