Remony Cottage is a detached three-bedroom bungalow set in a convenient position within Granttown on Spey, with the added benefit of a detached timber garage and easily managed garden grounds. The property offers well-proportioned accommodation all on one level and, while it would now benefit from a degree of upgrading and modernisation, presents an excellent opportunity for a purchaser to create a comfortable home suited to their own taste and requirements. A small entrance vestibule opens into the central hallway, which gives access to the main accommodation and provides a practical link through the house. The sitting room is a bright and well-sized reception space, centred around a fireplace and enjoying a large picture window that allows for good natural light. Adjacent to this, the kitchen and dining room offers a generous layout with ample space for everyday cooking and family dining, and has direct access outside, adding to its practicality. The principal bedroom is a particularly spacious double room, while bedroom two is another comfortable double and bedroom three provides a useful single bedroom, nursery or study depending on individual needs. The shower room is fitted with a three-piece suite and serves the accommodation well. Externally, the cottage sits within enclosed grounds with areas of stone chippings and space to enjoy or further landscape if desired. The detached timber garage provides excellent storage or workshop potential and is a useful addition to the property. Remony Cottage will appeal to a range of buyers, including those looking for a manageable home in a sought-after Highland town, with the chance to update and add value over time.
