Tomintoul

Tomintoul is the Eastern Gateway to the Cairngorms National Park and has the reputation of being the highest village in the Highlands at 1165 ft (350m) centred round a picturesque square and situated near the Lecht Ski Resort Centre on the scenic route between Granttown on Spey and Royal Deeside. It is the largest village in the Glenlivet area supporting B&B's, a post office and general stores, art studios, craft, gift and malt whisky shops.

Tomintoul also has its own distillery, "the Tomintoul", which made the Guinness Book of Records for producing "The Largest Bottle of Scotch Whisky in The World" - at 105.3 litres. There are also three more stills, "The Tamnavulin", "The Braeval" and "The Glenlivet" within a few miles.

The area is surrounded by the mountain ranges of the Cromdales, the Ladder Hills and the Cairngorms, facilitating spectacular views, walks and other outdoor pursuits, including wildlife appreciation, salmon and trout fishing on the nearby River Avon, mountain biking on many trails and nearby bike Glenlivet and hill walking a plenty.

The nearby Lecht Ski Centre 2090 provides winter sports and in the summer has quad biking and go-carts.

Transport Links

Located in the heart of the Highlands, Tomintoul offers a number of convenient travel options for local, regional, and international travel.

Road: Tomintoul is well-connected via road with the A939, a major scenic route running through Speyside, providing easy access to both Aberdeen to the east and Inverness to the north.

Air: The nearest airports are Inverness Airport (approximately 43 miles away) and Aberdeen International Airport (approximately 56 miles away), offering both domestic and international flights.

Rail: The nearest railway station is Aviemore (around 27 miles away), which is on the main line from Inverness to London, providing connections to major cities across the UK.

Public Transport: There are regular bus services that run through Glenlivet connecting it to neighbouring towns and villages.

For schooling, Tomintoul falls within the Moray Council area, which provides a comprehensive education system. Primary education is available at Tomintoul Primary School, a small but well-regarded school located right in Tomintoul. For secondary education, pupils typically attend Speyside High School in Aberlour, which is approximately 21 miles away and offers a broad curriculum.

For further education, the University of the Highlands and Islands offers a range of courses and has several campuses throughout the Highlands, with the nearest being in Elgin and Inverness. Other universities in Aberdeen and Dundee are available.

Restaurant & Service Areas

Occupying a prominent position in the historic village of Tomintoul—the highest village in the Highlands—The Clockhouse Restaurant offers an outstanding opportunity to acquire a distinguished hospitality venue in the heart of the Cairngorms National Park. Situated on the renowned Glenlivet Estate, internationally recognised for its malt whisky production, breathtaking scenery, and rich biodiversity, the property also benefits from its prime location on the popular North East 250 tourist route—a scenic circuit that draws a steady stream of visitors year-round. Internally, the restaurant is both characterful and elegantly presented, featuring traditional Highland architectural details such as exposed stone walls, timber ceiling beams, and generous sash windows that bathe the interior in natural light. The layout comprises a spacious main dining area and additional flexible seating spaces, alongside a welcoming central bar and reception area. The overall ambience is one of refined comfort—ideal for both relaxed daytime dining and evening service.

The Clockhouse is particularly well regarded for its chef-led, contemporary Scottish menu, showcasing the finest local and seasonal ingredients. Highlights include Moray Firth seafood, locally reared beef, lamb and game, as well as foraged wild mushrooms, herbs, and berries sourced from the surrounding Glenlivet Estate. This culinary excellence is paired with a curated wine list and a fine selection of Scotch whiskies, ensuring a memorable experience for all guests. Supporting the dining space is a fully equipped commercial kitchen, complete with ancillary preparation areas, cold room, office and storage, designed for efficiency and capacity. Additional facilities include customer and accessible WCs, all presented to a high standard. With its enviable setting, established reputation, and proximity to key visitor attractions and outdoor pursuits. The Clockhouse Restaurant represents a rare opportunity to acquire a thriving and beautifully appointed business at the heart of one of Scotland's most scenic and sought-after destinations.

Apartment One

Positioned above the Restaurant and accessed via a private entrance, Apartment One offers well-presented and practical accommodation (circa 66sqm apartment and 35sqm basement) ideally suited for owner-occupiers, staff housing, or as a self-contained holiday or long term let (subject to the necessary consents). Arranged over the first floor with additional basement storage, the apartment provides comfortable living space in a convenient and central village location. The main living accommodation comprises a generously proportioned sitting room, featuring dual windows and ample space for both relaxation and entertaining. The adjacent kitchen, located at the rear of the apartment, is bright and functional with fitted units and space for informal dining. There are two double bedrooms, both of excellent proportions, offering flexibility for family living or guest accommodation. The bedrooms are served by a bathroom, complete with a bath and overhead shower. On the lower ground level, the apartment benefits from a substantial basement area, offering extensive storage potential. This space includes a secure room and separate store—ideal for equipment, bicycles, or further utility use. This apartment represents a versatile and valuable addition to the property, enhancing its overall appeal as a mixed-use investment or live-work opportunity.

Apartment Two

Occupying the upper floors of the property, Apartment Two is a substantial four-bedroom residence offering spacious and versatile accommodation arranged over three levels. Accessed via its own entrance hall at ground level, this generously proportioned apartment
