SOLD - Tucked into the edge of ancient woodland and elevated to capture sweeping views across the surrounding countryside, Mains of Curr Farmhouse is a truly special home set within a small development of bespoke homes. Set in approximately 0.54 acres of mature garden grounds, this charming four-bedroom detached home blends traditional stone-built character with spacious interiors extending to around 153m². The property enjoys a peaceful setting within easy reach of the forest village of Nethybridge and is framed by a picturesque mix of forest and open hillsides, offering a wonderful sense of seclusion without isolation. From the house and gardens, the views stretch far over the valley, with every window offering a glimpse of the natural beauty that defines this part of the Cairngorms National Park. The home welcomes you in via a delightful sun porch, which leads inside to a hallway, generous sitting room with fireplace, complemented by a formal dining room and a country-style kitchen with adjoining utility and store. The layout is practical and flexible, with a ground floor shower room and well-proportioned hallways adding to the spacious feel. Upstairs, four bedrooms (including a generous principal bedroom) and a second bathroom provide plenty of room for family and guests. Original features, dormer windows, and traditional proportions add character throughout. The garden grounds wrap around the house, offering areas of lawn, established planting, and space for outdoor living, growing, or simply soaking in the surroundings. A gravel drive offers ample parking, and the overall plot provides potential for further enhancement (subject to planning). Mains of Curr Farmhouse is a rare gem in a sought-after rural location — ideal for a variety of purchasers looking for a home in the heart of the Highlands. EPC Rating F

Sun Porch

1.51m x 4.22m (4'11" x 13'10")

The sun porch at Mains of Curr Farmhouse is a glazed entrance space situated at the front of the property. It is enclosed by multi-pane windows featuring decorative coloured glass panels, which allow in substantial natural light while maintaining a degree of privacy. The structure includes a pitched roof with exposed timber framing and a centrally positioned double front door providing direct access into the main hallway. Internally, the porch is finished with white-painted timber panelling and a tiled floor. The space benefits from panoramic views across the front garden and open countryside beyond.

Hallway

The hallway provides a warm and practical welcome to the home. Centrally positioned, it connects the main living spaces on the ground floor and leads to the staircase accessing the upper level. With natural light flowing in from the sun porch and views into the sitting room, the space feels bright and inviting. There's plenty of room for everyday essentials like coats and shoes, and the layout offers a smooth flow throughout the house.

Sitting Room

4.51m x 4.30m (14'9" x 14'1")

The sitting room at Mains of Curr Farmhouse is a warm and inviting space, ideal for relaxing or entertaining. A central fireplace (not currently in use) adds a traditional focal point and enhances the cosy atmosphere, while a large window to the front frames stunning countryside views and fills the room with natural light. There's ample space for comfortable seating and storage, and built-in display shelving finishes the space.

Dining Room

4.53m x 4.18m (14'10" x 13'8")

The dining room at Mains of Curr Farmhouse is a versatile and light-filled space with a peaceful outlook across the garden and surrounding countryside. Generously sized, it lends itself equally well to family meals, entertaining guests, or use as a home office or hobby room. A large window allows in plenty of natural light while framing the lovely rural views beyond.

Kitchen & Utility Area

3.53m x 4.41m & 1.91m x 2.91m (11'6" x 14'5" & 6'3" x 9'6")

The kitchen at Mains of Curr Farmhouse is a bright and welcoming space, well-equipped for both everyday living and entertaining. A wide window above the sink lets in lovely natural light, while the layout provides generous counter space and storage. The room includes space for appliances and there is a traditional range cooker, blending practicality with a touch of classic charm. There's space for a dining table, making this a sociable area at the heart of the home—perfect for family meals or breakfast. Just off the kitchen, a handy utility and pantry area offers additional storage and room for appliances, helping to keep the main kitchen clutter-free. A back door provides convenient access to the garden.

Shower Room

2.42m x 2.41m (7'11" x 7'10")

The ground floor shower room includes a shower enclosure with an electric unit, WC, and a wash hand basin with vanity storage. A window allows in natural light, while built-in shelving and additional cabinets provide plenty of space for toiletries and essentials. Practical and well laid out, it's ideal for everyday use.

Landing

Providing access to the four bedrooms and family bathroom, the bright and airy landing has a skylight and the space also includes a run of built-in cupboards offering excellent storage tucked neatly under the eaves.

Principal Bedroom

4.56m x 4.35m (14'11" x 14'3")

Positioned to take full advantage of the stunning views across the countryside. A large window frames a picturesque outlook, bringing the outside in and making the most of the home's elevated setting. The room offers ample space for freestanding furniture and a king-size bed.
