Any new purchaser wishing to continue the business will need to apply for the transfer of short-term letting licence, a process which we understand should be straightforward as there is a current licence in place (further information below). These applications are determined in broadly the same manner as licence applications. The Chief Constable and other statutory consultees are informed, and an opportunity is given for them to object to the transfer should concerns exist about the transferee.' reference 'The Association of Scotland's Self-Caterers'.
