Tucked away in a peaceful development within one of the Cairngorms National Park's most sought-after villages, this beautifully presented home offers the perfect combination of quality, comfort, and convenience. Set on a generously sized and landscaped plot of approximately 1/3rd of an acre, the house enjoys a wonderful position with views to the hills, excellent privacy, and an inviting sense of space both inside and out. The flexible layout spans two thoughtfully arranged floors and is ideal for modern family life or those simply seeking room to breathe. The heart of the home is the bright and spacious kitchen and dining area, where French doors open directly onto the rear patio and garden — perfect for al fresco dining, entertaining, or watching the seasons change. A large dual-aspect sitting room with a wood burning stove provides a cosy and elegant retreat, while a separate utility room and ground floor wc add to the practical appeal. With four versatile bedrooms, including a generous principal bedroom with en-suite, and a handy home working space or nursery, the home can easily adapt as your needs evolve. The layout offers excellent privacy for guests or older children, and the overall feel is airy, welcoming, and exceptionally well finished. Outside, the landscaped gardens wrap around the home and include a lovely mix of lawn, mature shrubs, and paved areas for relaxing or pottering. The attached garage with floored roof space is a real bonus. With ample parking on the lock-block driveway and a peaceful yet accessible setting, this is a home that would suit a variety of purchasers EPC C, Council tax F, Home report available from massoncairns.com

Kincraig

The village of Kincraig is situated at the south end of Strathspey just off the B9152 Kingussie to Aviemore Road and offers a tranquil village lifestyle in a beautiful rural location within the Cairngorms National Park. In addition to the many leisure pursuits available in the area, Kincraig itself offers a range of local amenities including local Primary School, Post Office/Village Store, Hotel, tearooms and water sports centre and salmon fishing at Loch Insh. Kingussie, 6 miles away, is one of the most attractive and popular towns of Strathspey with a first class shopping centre, hotels, guest houses, medical facilities and primary and secondary schools offering education to University entrance standard. Sporting facilities in the area include 18 hole golf courses, excellent salmon and trout fishing on the River Spey and other waters, tennis courts, bowling green and children's recreation park. Kingussie is surrounded by some of the finest grouse moors and deer forests in Scotland, the Insh Marshes are famous as a bird sanctuary and within easy reach are the Cairngorm Mountains for winter sporting facilities and hill walking and the sandy beaches of the Moray Firth.

Transport Links

Kingussie boasts excellent transportation links that provide easy access to the rest of Scotland and the UK, making it an ideal location for commuters and travellers alike.

Rail: Kingussie railway station, a stop on the Highland Main Line, provides direct services to Edinburgh, Glasgow, and Inverness to the north, and as far south as London. This makes it extremely convenient for both local and long-distance travel.

Bus: The town is well-served by regular bus services offering routes to nearby towns and villages in the Scottish Highlands, including Aviemore and Inverness. These services are operated by Stagecoach Highlands.

Road: For those who prefer to drive, Kingussie is conveniently located on the A9, the longest road in Scotland. This major route runs from Perth, through Inverness, and all the way up to the far north coast at Thurso. This makes travelling north to Inverness or south to the central belt and beyond straightforward.

Air: For international travellers, the closest airport is Inverness

Airport, which is approximately an hour's drive away and offers flights to destinations across the UK and Europe.

Active Travel: Lastly, for those who prefer a more active mode of travel, Kingussie's location in the heart of the Cairngorms National Park offers an extensive network of cycling and walking paths.

Whether you're commuting, exploring the stunning local area, or journeying further afield, Kingussie's impressive transport links ensure you're well-connected.
