Occupying the second floor of an elegant white stucco-fronted period mansion conversion, this beautifully presented south-facing one bedroom apartment offers bright, well-proportioned accommodation in the heart of Belsize Park.

Bathed in natural light throughout, the apartment enjoys delightful views across Belsize Square and its picturesque church. Generous sash windows in both the reception room and bedroom enhance the sense of space and light, while the thoughtfully arranged semi open-plan kitchen and reception room creates an inviting setting for both everyday living and entertaining, complemented by an attractive arched serving hatch.
