Rosslyn Mews Hampstead Village NW3

Originally designed by the noted British architect Peter Wilson (Bolles & Wilson) and built circa 1987, this unique home has been newly extended and refurbished to the highest standards and is conveniently and discretely set within a cobbled mews in the heart of Hampstead Village.

This bright and spacious home has been tastefully designed with well proportioned rooms, four bedrooms with en-suites and ample storage. Arranged over three floors, the property benefits from a large private roof terrace with a hot tub, enjoying open and picturesque views.
