Broomfield Lane, Palmers Green, London, N13

Stunning five-bedroom semi-detached period house built in the early 20th century, offering an impressive 2,249sq ft of well-appointed living space over three floors. The property has been fully renovated and extended by the current owners to create a wonderful blend of period charm and contemporary living.

The ground floor consists of an Art Deco entrance hall; cellar; living room with bay window and feature fireplace; extended open-plan kitchen-diner family room with a wood burner, and bi-fold doors opening onto the garden; utility room; and modern shower room. The first floor has four good-sized bedrooms and a modern family bathroom with a freestanding shower bath. The converted loft offers a spacious main bedroom with views across London and a modern en-suite shower room, plus eaves storage space.

The south-facing rear garden gets sun most of the day and has a large decked area, lawn, flower and shrub borders and a big timber shed. The drive at the front provides off-street parking.

Broomfield Lane is located opposite Broomfield Park and is a short walk through the park to Palmers Green's shops, bars and restaurants, bus routes and overland railway station to Moorgate.
