Open Plan Lounge Kitchen

A charming open plan lounge kitchen finished with wood effect laminate flooring and a practical layout. The kitchen features off-white cabinetry with butcher block worktops, including a clever flip-up section for additional preparation space. There is a black speckled sink with stainless steel tap, two-ring induction hob with oven below, floating extractor above, and under-counter space for a washer dryer and fridge. The living area includes an inset nook for a log burner with slate hearth, built-in corner cupboard, floating shelving, tall radiator, double glazed sash windows to both the front and rear, a wooden front door and a wooden barn-style door leading to the rear.

Master Bedroom

A characterful bedroom with wood effect laminate flooring, pitched ceiling and exposed wooden beams, creating a warm and inviting feel. A double glazed sash window overlooks the front, while the boiler is neatly housed within a built-in cupboard. Carpeted stairs with a wooden bannister lead down to the open plan lounge kitchen below.

Bathroom

A stylish bathroom fitted with stone effect tiled flooring and a freestanding bath with shower attachment. There is a sink set into a wooden worktop with shelving beneath, a generous shower tray with waterfall shower head, glass door and tiled surround. A sliding wooden door adds character and practicality, while the room is completed by a tall radiator and obscure double glazed window to the rear.

Garden

The garden provides a low-maintenance outdoor space with a mix of wooden decking and concrete underfoot, enclosed by tall stone boundary walls for a sense of privacy. Pallet-built seating and shelving offer practical seating and storage options, while raised gravel beds create decorative areas for planting and foliage. There is also a dedicated space for bin storage.
