

Mold Road, Denbigh LL16 4BH

£270,000

Unique and beautiful 2 bedroom country cottage, set within the Vale of Clwyd on the edge of the medieval castle town of Denbigh. Small but perfectly formed, this is a stunning high-end property, with eco-friendly features, and the charm, comfort and homely feel of an idyllic traditional home.

A top-end barn conversion (2008) by an Award Winning local builder, this immaculate little gem is set within a private, gated and characterful community. Downstairs, you have a tiled floor throughout, a cosy characterful living room with beamed woodburner fireplace, and a truly fabulous bespoke handcrafted solid oak kitchen, with granite worktops and a gleaming modern electric Aga. A sun-filled sitting room with patio doors, perfect for so many uses, completes the picture.

A solid oak turned staircase leads you to the carpeted landing, and 2 good sized airy bedrooms with exposed beam ceilings. Expansive countryside views across fields and hedgerows towards the Clwydian Hills AONB can be enjoyed from every window. The upstairs is completed by the top-end bathroom, also featuring a beamed ceiling. The property benefits from a ground source heat pump, and under floor heating. There is also an interior speaker system throughout the house.

Outside, the rear garden is low maintenance, fully enclosed and pet friendly. A useful 'Lifelong' steel shed, and a small greenhouse, are also included. To the side of the property there is a combined log-store/shed and an additional bike-shed. To the front of the property, there is the original historic well, now made safe, and ample parking for 3 vehicles.

Within easy access of the tiny cathedral city of St Asaph and the market towns of Ruthin and Mold, it's only minutes from Glan Clwyd Hospital, the A55 and less than an hour from Snowdonia National Park.

This is a most desirable, adaptable and unique two-bedroom home in a beautiful setting.

INSPECTION IS HIGHLY RECOMMENDED.
