Commercial Premises

Shop Floor

The ground floor shop offers an inviting and versatile trading space, with twin glazed doors flanked by large display windows that flood the interior with natural light and provide excellent frontage onto the square. Internally, the space is finished with wooden flooring and features a stylish bar area complete with stainless steel sinks, glass washer and fitted shelving, making it ideally suited for hospitality or retail use. A raised stage area and fitted bench seating enhance the flexibility of the space, while a striking circular staircase leads to the first floor seating area.

First Floor

The first floor of the commercial space continues the character theme with exposed ceiling beams, sash windows overlooking the square and a decorative brick fireplace, creating an atmospheric setting for customers. Ancillary accommodation includes separate male and female WCs, both fitted with modern conveniences.

WC

The property benefits from separate male and female WC facilities, both finished with durable vinyl flooring and panelled walls for ease of maintenance. Each is fitted with a low-level toilet, compact hand basin, wall-mounted soap dispenser and paper towel holder, with extractor fans providing ventilation. Practical, clean and well-suited to a commercial environment, supporting a range of business uses.

Basement

Beneath the shop lies a highly distinctive basement level. The main basement area features tiled flooring, a raised section, feature lighting and access to the cellar. Notably, part of a historic Roman roadway is believed to run beneath the property, offering a rare and compelling talking point. The adjoining cellar provides practical storage space, complete with a traditional Butler sink.

Apartment

Entrance & Utility Area

Private entrance with carpeted stairs leading to landing. Built-in storage, washer/dryer space, shelving, and boiler. Internal access to commercial area also available.

Kitchen Lounge

A characterful open-plan living space combining kitchen and lounge areas, fitted with wooden cabinetry, stainless steel sink with draining board and a gas hob with extractor fan over and oven beneath. Decorative tiled splashbacks complement the workspace, while exposed ceiling beams and a brick fireplace add warmth and charm. Two front-facing windows with secondary glazing allow natural light to fill the room, while a double glazed door to the rear opens onto a wrought iron balcony area. Radiators provide heating, creating a comfortable and versatile living space.

Hallway

Accessed via carpeted stairs, the hallway features wooden flooring and provides access to all principal rooms. A wooden ladder staircase leads up to the mezzanine level, with wooden doors opening to both bedrooms and the bathroom.

Master Bedroom

A well-proportioned double bedroom featuring wooden flooring, exposed ceiling beams and a radiator, creating a warm and inviting space with plenty of character.

Bedroom 2

A further double bedroom with wooden flooring and radiator, offering comfortable accommodation ideal for guests or additional occupants.

Bathroom

A distinctive and well-appointed bathroom fitted with tiled flooring and a clawfoot bath set on a raised platform, creating a striking focal point. A separate shower enclosure with bi-fold door and jet shower system provides additional convenience. The room also includes a toilet, wash hand basin, chrome heated towel rail, wall-mounted heater and obscure glazed window, with extractor fan for ventilation.

Mezzanine Level

Accessed via a wooden ladder staircase, this useful mezzanine level provides additional storage space within the roof eaves, complete with a small double glazed window for ventilation.

Location & History

Positioned directly on Market Square, Denbigh, one of North Wales' most historic town centres. The square developed alongside Denbigh Castle, founded in the late 13th century following Edward I's conquest of Wales in 1282. By the Tudor period, the square was a thriving hub of trade and civic life, with the nearby Shire Hall (1572) serving as courthouse and market centre. Today, it remains the historic and commercial heart of the town.
