An unbelievable opportunity to purchase a Victorian Country House Luxury Hotel & Bar in the popular coastal village of Llanbedr. Hafan Artro has been beautifully refurbished by the current owners who have built up both a local and tourist trade since opening in 2017.

- Victorian Country House luxury Hotel and Bar
- Beautifully refurbished by present owners
- Public bar and dining room
- Prominent location in coastal village location
- Beautiful gardens and parking
- Seven ensuite letting rooms
- Two bedroom owners Private Detached Chalet
- Year round local trade
- Tourist trade 10 months of the year

Hafan Artro was opened in 2017 following a full refurbishment and has firmly established itself as a luxury hotel and bar situated in a high profile location within the popular coastal village of Llanbedr nestling in the South Snowdonia National Park between the beautiful sandy beaches and the rugged Cambrian mountains.

With a modern bar/restaurant, separate dining room, additional lounge/snug, refitted well equipped commercial kitchen, large cold beer storage/cellar area, separate office and outside bar, this beautiful tasteful building successfully blends period features with contemporary style and design. The large landscaped gardens, plus veranda and multiple terraces and patio areas provide plentiful space for additional capacity.

Refurbished to a very high standard, with opportunities to grow the business further, this presents an exciting opportunity to purchase an established business. The bar is open to the public and has both local and tourist trade. The bar, restaurant and exterior tables have 132 covers (52 inside and 80 outside) which are frequently fully booked. The mature gardens are beautiful and have been landscaped to include patio areas and large raised decking and include an outside bar and covered veranda.

With all fixtures, fittings and contents included this is being sold as a "turnkey" solution and there is potential to increase revenue further if desired.

It is located in a high profile position on the main Cambrian Coast Road within the coastal village of Llanbedr which has a strong local community and a thriving tourist trade which extends for up to 10 months of the year.

Ladies, Gents and separate disabled toilet and baby changing facilities.

Exterior

The hotel is surrounded by a beautiful original veranda which leads on to patio seating areas to the front and side and a large courtyard to the rear accessed from the bar and having its own outside bar area. The courtyard leads to tiered patio and decking areas with glass balustrade leading onto landscaped lawns with a backdrop of trees, bushes and shrubs. A pathway leads to the office and through a gated entrance to the entirely private owner's chalet. There is a large stone chipped and landscaped car park to the front of the hotel

(approximately 25 spaces) and a separate side driveway for deliveries and bins tucked away from customer views.

Additional Information

There is full CCTV and fire alarm system. Hafan Atro has been fully refurbished and improved by the current owners and has oil fired central heating. The hotel and bar are still up and running but not at full throttle. There are no staff to furlough as those remaining after the owner and family leave are on zero hour contracts. Should a buyer prefer, the owners will shut the hotel down with immediate effect so it can be relaunched by the new owners.

There is a grade 2 listed milestone at the edge of the property set alongside the E side of the A496 at the S end of the village of Llanbedr Broad, irregularly shaped milestone bearing the inscription: HARLECH / III / M / 1765. The stone has been set into a modern mortared rubble wall.

Non Domestic Rates

Business rates are payable annually, the owners received a 50% discount for the 2022/23 financial year through the Hospitality and Leisure business rates relief scheme.

Fixtures/Fittings and Contents

The sale of Hafan Artro is to include all furniture, fixtures, fittings and contents with the exception of any personal belongings.
