Caerdeon Farm

Barmouth | LL42 1TH

A rare opportunity to purchase a fully restored and converted former coach house plus detached cottage set within 5 acres located on the beautiful Mawddach estuary in the Snowdonia National Park. Included is an extensive range of outbuildings and garage plus a large yard. There are landscaped gardens, grazing land and ponds all approached by a sweeping driveway.

Once the Coach House to Cardeon Hall, this full and imaginative renovation has concentrated on the use of natural materials and preservation of character with a wealth of oak, glass and Travertine flags. It successfully blends attractive original features with the best of contemporary design.

There is underfloor heating throughout the Coach House, 3 reception rooms, 4 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms plus boot room and large utility. With high ceilings and extensive glazing there is a wonderful feeling of light and space. Fully insulated with central heating and cosy fires, the accommodation is economic to maintain.

The cottage has its own private driveway, garden and parking with a large bedroom, dressing room and en-suite as well as an additional WC/utility. It currently operates as a successful holiday let and is perfect for a dependant relatives and guests.

The sweeping driveway through the grounds leads to the large parking area where there are several well maintained stone outbuildings with slated roofs, a garage, and tarmac yard behind.

The gardens are beautifully landscaped with several seating areas, a hot tub enclosure and a babbling brook. Extending to just over 5 acres, there are extensive lawns, grazing fields and three large ponds with Mawddach estuary and Cader Idris views to the front and a backdrop of woodland.

Additional Information

The house and cottage are connected to mains electricity. The both have a private water supply with treatment plants. Drainage is to private septic tank.

Both properties are fully double glazed with separate oil fired central heating. The coach house benefits from underfloor heating to both floors and a wood burner to the ground floor reception and gas fire to the first floor lounge.

We are advised that historically there have been two small patches of Japanese knotweed detected in the grounds a considerable distance from the house. One at the entrance to the driveway and one in the field behind the house. Both patches are treated locally by the owner if necessary.

Barmouth, Bontddu, the Mawddach and Dolgellau

Barmouth is known as the town where 'the Mountains meet the Sea' but offers much more than that. It is a thriving seaside town with breathtaking views on the north west coast of Wales looking out onto Cardigan Bay on the edge of the Snowdonia National Park. There is a a bustling town centre with a range of shops and supermarkets and great places to eat and relax.

For lovers of the outdoors it offers walking, cycling, paddle-boarding, kayaking, and of course swimming in the sea from the beautiful golden sand beach. The train station in the middle of the town provides easy links up and down the coastal line or regular trains directly through to Birmingham and beyond.

The near by market town of Dolgellau is one of the most beautiful places in Snowdonia. It's a fabulous base to explore Snowdonia. If you want mountain biking you have everything including the flat Mawddach Trail which follows the old railway bed to the lovely seaside town of Barmouth. If hurtling down hills on two wheels is your thing, then Dolgellau is the nearest town to Coed y Brenin Mountain Bike Centre and further north you have the rugged slate tracks of Antur Stiniog in Blaenau Ffestiniog. Dolgellau is home to local schools, a college and hospital in addition to its shops, craft shops, pubs, restaurants and cafes.

The vast and sandy Mawddach estuary is one of the National Park's most remarkable areas. The area is designated a Site of Special Scientific Interest and a Special Area of Conservation due to its salt marsh and lowland peat habitats and is home to an RSPB nature reserve full of incredible wildlife such as rare flowers, grass snakes, butterflies and all manner of birds.

The area was also the centre point to some of Snowdonia's rich industrial past. On the estuary's northern shore, the historic Clogau gold mine sits high above the village of Bontddu. Mining for gold was a popular activity in this area. Gold panning also took place in the Mawddach river itself. During the 18th and 19th centuries, the Mawddach was home to a busy shipbuilding industry. A total of 318 vessels were built along the Mawddach between 1750 and 1865.

The Mawddach cycle and walking trail follows the trackbed of the old railway line from Barmouth to Ruabon. The line was opened in 1865 and proved very popular with visitors. It was also used briefly to carry slate. The railway closed in 1965 as cars became a more popular way to travel. Down towards the end of the estuary stands Barmouth Bridge, crossing between the northern and southern shores of the Mawddach. The bridge is a Grade II* listed single-track wooden railway viaduct stretching 820 meters between Morfa Mawddach and Barmouth stations. It is the longest timber viaduct in Wales and is synonymous with views of the estuary.
