Glan Morfa

Dyffryn Ardudwy | Merionethshire | LL44 2BS

An exceptional and unique, six-bedroom detached Victorian residence offering an idyllic coastal retreat with views of sea, mountains and the semi rural surrounds. Glan Morfa is set within a generous 0.95 acres, featuring a long gravel driveway leading to one of the most beautiful houses in this coveted location on the "Welsh Riviera".

This remarkable residence includes three family bathrooms and two en-suites, all beautifully appointed to provide a luxurious experience. The period charm and features of the house are complemented by modern conveniences, creating a harmonious blend of old and new.

There are three reception rooms; living, dining and parlour, in addition to a stunning contemporary kitchen/dining/living room with bi-fold doors opening to the garden inviting natural light and providing a seamless transition to the outdoor space, perfect for entertaining or simply enjoying the tranquil surroundings. The high-spec kitchen with under floor heating boasts a sea of granite, ensuring both functionality and elegance.

Natural materials have been used throughout including limestone, marble floor, green slate and sandstone.

The location is truly unparalleled, with the beach and village just a short walk away, allowing for easy access to local amenities and the stunning coastline. The property is secluded and private but easily accessible and not isolated.

Additionally, planning permission has been granted for a full planning permission for a two storey double garage with a workshop and separate access to first floor storage/room.

This property is a rare find, combining luxury living with the charm of a period property in a coastal village. It is an ideal choice for those seeking a spacious family home in one of the most beautiful parts of Wales. Don't miss the opportunity to make this exceptional property your own.

Dyffryn Ardudwy and its Surrounds

Glan Morfa is located in the charming village of Dyffryn Ardudwy which lies between Harlech and Barmouth in Gwynedd, North Wales. Dyffryn sits on the narrow coastal strip between the glorious sandy beaches of Cardigan Bay to the west and the foothills of Snowdonia to the east. It is fabulous walking country with rolling hills, golden sands and wooded valleys to be explored. The landscape is full of history and the village attracts visitors seeking relaxing beaches, walking and ancient settlements and historical artefacts. This village offers good local shops, cafes, pubs and an art gallery. The surrounding area has an exciting array of wildlife and birds including soaring buzzards and red kites.

The bustling town of Harlech is just 4 miles away, dominated by its majestic 13th century castle which is a World Heritage Site. Popular with golfers due to its famous Royal St. David's course, Harlech also boasts an excellent variety of amenities including restaurants and shops. The nearby resort of Barmouth offers an amazing Panorama Walk with breathtaking views and also a harbour from which you can enjoy a ferry to Fairbourne for a ride on the miniature railway or a boat trip out to sea to try mackerel fishing.
