Harlech | LL46 2NX

In a sought after location on the popular Glan Gors development, this charming three-bedroom maisonette offers a unique "upside down" layout that maximises the stunning views of both Harlech castle and mountain ranges.

The property is light and airy, with the main living area located on the second floor, allowing for a bright and sunny lounge that overlooks the historic castle at the front and boasts breathtaking vistas of Snowdon and the surrounding mountain ranges at the rear.

Having been cherished by the same family for 23 years, this well-maintained home is now ready for new owners to infuse their personal touch. Whether you are seeking a holiday retreat, a family residence, or an investment opportunity, this property is perfectly suited to meet your needs. With no onward chain, you can move in and start enjoying all that the picturesque coastal town of Harlech has to offer.

The maisonette is fully double glazed and well insulated, ensuring comfort throughout the seasons. An added bonus is the loft space, which provides additional storage.

Outside, you'll find beautifully maintained communal gardens, drying areas and parking facilities for your convenience.

Ideally situated within walking distance to shops, golf club, a stunning beach, school, medical centre, rail and bus links, this property offers a perfect blend of convenience and leisure. Perfect for commuting to Porthmadog, Barmouth and other nearby towns. There are many fine walks to be enjoyed from the doorstep, and the Rhinog mountain ranges are close by.

Having a long and flexible lease, this property will appeal to those seeking a superb coastal home, holiday retreat or investment opportunity.

It is being sold with the benefit of NO ONWARD CHAIN and we understand that the property can be purchased as a second home, primary residence or investment for an AST.

Harlech and its Surrounds

The stunning golden sands of Harlech beach are just a 20 minute walk away. 79 Glan Gors is well placed within walking distance to the local facilities such as the railway station, shops, pubs, buses, medical centre and schools.

Harlech is in the heart of the Snowdonia National Park famous for its World Heritage listed castle. It has astonishing views across Tremadog Bay to the Llyn Peninsula and one of the most picturesque golden sandy beaches in Wales. It has recently been given the accolade of having the second steepest street in the world at Ffordd Pen Llech just a few minutes walk from the property.

Harlech has a wealth of traditional architecture, shops and restaurants. It also boasts the internationally renowned Royal St David's links golf course. Further afield are the larger towns of Barmouth (8 miles) and Porthmadog (12 miles) which offer more shops and large supermarkets. At least two of the large national supermarkets have a delivery service to Harlech.

The Rhinog mountain range provides the spectacular backdrop to the town which is one of the most rugged and remote terrains to be found in Wales. The mountains and hills provide hiking and walking opportunities for all ranges of abilities.
