Llandanwg and its Surrounds

Llandanwg between Barmouth and Harlech, is famous for its beautiful beach and medieval church in the dunes which stands just a stone's throw from the sea. The beach is sheltered from strong winds, making it a perfect place for relaxation. It's popular with fishermen – the local catch includes dogfish, bass, flatfish and mackerel. It has its own beachside cafe and Pensarn Harbour is nearby. The Welsh Coastal path and other scenic walks are on the doorstep. It has a railway station served by the Cambrian Coastline railway which offers links to local towns, the Midlands and beyond. It's close to the castle town of Harlech, a popular resort offering a range of facilities including shops, schools, swimming baths, petrol station and the Royal St David's Golf Club.
