Hollingbury Road

Brighton, BN1 7JA

Asking price £700,000

A substantial and exceptionally spacious Victorian terraced family home of character enjoying pleasant elevated far reaching views at the rear and located in this popular location, close to excellent local shopping facilities and amenities at Fiveways together with easy accessibility to London Road railway station.

Hollingbury Road is a popular location among young families, being situated within close proximity of an excellent range of shops, pubs and cafes at Fiveways, together with bus routes leading to the City centre, as well as London Road railway station.

This attractive and imposing Victorian terrace retains much original character and provides lovely light and generously proportioned living space spanning four floors making it a comfortable and versatile home suiting modern family demands and expectations for flexible living space. The lower floor has its own separate entrance increasing flexibility further and some fine elevated views over the surrounding area are enjoyed from the rear elevation.

Worthy of particular mention is the good sized mature rear garden and front basement terrace which complements this well presented family home. There is no chain involved with the sale and an early viewing is highly recommended.
