Worthing, BN12 4QN

£8,500 Per month

This exceptional detached beachfront home combines striking contemporary architecture with breathtaking panoramic sea views, offering an outstanding lifestyle on the coast.

This impressive five-bedroom residence extends to approximately 4,722 sq ft over three beautifully designed floors. Thoughtfully planned throughout, it features spacious open-plan living areas, floor-to-ceiling glazing, and high-quality finishes that maximise natural light and showcase the stunning coastal setting.

A double-height entrance hall creates an immediate sense of space and style, complete with a feature staircase and elegant finishes inspired by modern design. The ground floor offers three generous double bedrooms, a versatile fourth room suitable as a home office, gym or snug, a stylish Jack and Jill bathroom, an additional shower room, utility room, and internal access to the integral double garage.

The first floor is dedicated to the main living accommodation, where a bespoke kitchen flows seamlessly into the open-plan living and dining area. Two balconies and expansive south-facing windows frame uninterrupted sea views, creating the perfect setting for both entertaining and everyday living.

Occupying the entire second floor, the luxurious principal suite provides a peaceful retreat with a dressing room and an impressive en-suite bathroom featuring a freestanding bath positioned to enjoy the coastal outlook.

Outside, the property sits within landscaped gardens with a private south-facing lawn to the front, a gated driveway leading to the integral double garage, and a paved rear terrace ideal for outdoor dining and relaxing in the evening sun.

Designed with both luxury and practicality in mind, this outstanding seafront home presents a rare opportunity to enjoy contemporary coastal living in an exceptional location.
