Description of Property

Nestled behind a private gated gravel driveway, this exquisite character property effortlessly combines period charm with modern country living. Offering a wealth of original features including exposed beams, reclaimed brick walls, and reclaimed stone flooring, the home exudes warmth, elegance, and timeless appeal.

Upon entering the ground floor, you are welcomed by a spacious entrance hallway adorned with exposed timber beams, setting the tone for the craftsmanship that continues throughout. The inviting double-height drawing room features a large Clearview log burner fireplace set against exposed reclaimed brick walls and opens directly onto a tranquil rear garden patio, ideal for peaceful mornings or evening entertaining. Adjacent lies a formal dining room, also with French doors leading to the garden, perfectly designed for family gatherings.

The heart of the home is the stunning Harvey Jones shaker-style kitchen, complete with a Belfast sink, Electric Rangemaster Range Cooker, wooden and granite work surfaces, and a generous breakfast area. Reclaimed stone flooring and more exposed red brick elevate the space, while ample storage ensures practicality. A separate utility room with an adjoining pantry and a guest WC provides functional convenience.

An office with dual access, internally and via a separate entrance at the front of the property, offers the perfect setting for remote work (with full fibre internet) or a quiet study. Completing the ground floor is a beautifully crafted oak wooden staircase leading to the first floor.

with exposed beams connects all four bedrooms. The principal bedroom is a true retreat, boasting an en-suite bathroom with a skylight that bathes the room in natural light. Three further bedrooms, two with elegant wooden flooring and one with a skylight, offer versatile accommodation. A family bathroom with a freestanding cast-iron bathtub and skylight completes the first-floor layout, creating a serene spa-like experience.
