Description of Property

An impressive and generously proportioned family residence, offering well-appointed accommodation arranged over two floors, complemented by a particularly attractive and established rear garden. The property combines substantial living space with a versatile four-bedroom configuration and occupies a pleasing position with an open outlook over fields to the front elevation within this highly regarded Sutton Coldfield setting. Approached via a broad block-paved frontage providing excellent off-road parking and access to the integral garage, the property presents an attractive and understated façade, softened by mature planting and established greenery. Internally, the accommodation is introduced by a welcoming reception hall, leading through to a superb lounge/dining room, which provides an impressive principal reception space with considerable flexibility for both formal entertaining and relaxed family life. A particular feature of the lounge is the Clearview log burner, elegantly housed within an attractive surround, creating a wonderful focal point and adding warmth and character to the room. The adjoining dining area benefits from French doors opening into the conservatory, creating an easy flow between the principal reception spaces and allowing the accommodation to be opened up beautifully when entertaining. The conservatory, in turn, enjoys views towards the rear garden and provides an appealing additional space in which to relax and enjoy the outlook. Further French doors open directly onto the rear garden patio, creating a seamless connection between the house and the outdoor entertaining areas.

The superb recently re-fitted kitchen/breakfast room forms the true heart of the home and is undoubtedly one of its standout features. Generous in scale and flooded with natural light from windows on two elevations, the room has been thoughtfully designed to combine contemporary styling with the demands of everyday family life. An extensive range of soft grey cabinetry is complemented by contrasting full-height storage and generous quartz-style work surfaces, while a substantial central island creates a natural focal point, providing excellent preparation space together with informal seating for relaxed breakfasts and everyday dining. A range-style cooker is set beneath a striking mirrored splashback and canopy, adding a real sense of presence, while the Belfast-style sinks, contemporary fittings and statement pendant lighting enhance the room's stylish yet practical feel. The scale, light and layout combine to create a wonderfully sociable space with an attractive outlook over the foregardens. A separate utility room provides valuable additional storage and appliance space, finished with complementary cabinetry and work surfaces, with a door providing direct access to the rear garden.

To the first floor are four generously proportioned bedrooms, headed by an impressive principal bedroom of excellent proportions. Beautifully presented and flooded with natural light, the room features extensive fitted wardrobes with sleek mirrored sliding doors, together with striking full-width glazing which enhances the wonderful sense of space. Bedroom two is also a generous double and benefits from fitted storage, with the two rooms linked by a beautifully appointed Jack & Jill en-suite shower room. Finished in a stylish contemporary scheme, the Jack & Jill en-suite is particularly impressive, with large-format marble-effect tiling, a substantial glazed shower enclosure with rainfall and handheld shower fittings, twin wash basins, an illuminated circular mirror and chrome heated towel rail. The thoughtful arrangement provides a superb degree of privacy and convenience for both bedrooms. The two remaining bedrooms are positioned to the rear and are both comfortable doubles, providing excellent flexibility for children, guests or home working, and are served by the well-appointed family bathroom. Together, the four bedrooms and two bathrooms create a particularly practical first-floor layout, ideally suited to modern family life.

Outside, the rear garden is a particularly appealing feature of the property. Mature hedging, established trees and abundant planting create a private and secluded garden setting, with a generous expanse of lawn complemented by a stone-paved patio. The patio provides an excellent setting for outdoor dining and entertaining, whilst the established planting and mature greenery lend the garden a wonderfully leafy and tranquil character. The conservatory and garden-facing French doors further strengthen the relationship between the indoor and outdoor spaces, making the garden a natural extension of the home during the warmer months.
