Description of Property

Steeped in character and brimming with storybook charm, this truly enchanting residence is a home of rare warmth and individuality, where beautiful original features blend effortlessly with thoughtful modern comforts. Behind its welcoming façade and gated entrance lies a wonderfully unique home that exudes timeless appeal at every turn.

A sweeping block-paved driveway, framed by colourful hedgerows, mature trees and an elegant brick boundary wall, leads to the property, creating an impressive and inviting first impression. A delightful seating area to the front offers the perfect spot to enjoy a morning coffee while admiring the picturesque surroundings.

Inside, the reception hall immediately sets the tone, with its stone-paved flooring, exposed brickwork, original beams and handsome wooden door frames. A charming original staircase, complete with its traditional banister and useful understairs storage, rises gracefully to the upper floors, while a feature window above the entrance floods the first-floor landing with natural light.

The sitting room is a wonderfully cosy retreat, showcasing an original beam, sturdy wooden doors and elegant French doors that open onto the front seating area, creating a seamless connection between indoors and out. Across the hall, the dining room enjoys delightful views to the front and features exposed beams together with a beautiful window seat, providing an idyllic setting for leisurely breakfasts and memorable gatherings alike.

A few gentle steps lead from the sitting room to the heart of the home – a magnificent breakfast kitchen that perfectly captures rustic country charm. Exposed beams and brickwork provide character in abundance, while polished white slate flooring and integrated modern appliances offer contemporary convenience. Rich black granite worktops, a traditional Belfast sink and beautifully crafted cabinetry create a timeless aesthetic, enhanced by two large skylights that bathe the space in natural light. A door opens onto the rear courtyard and patio, inviting al fresco dining and peaceful moments outdoors.

The lounge is equally captivating, centred around a rugged exposed brick fireplace with log burner and complemented by display cabinets and exposed ceiling beams, creating a wonderfully atmospheric room in which to relax and unwind. A guest cloakroom and utility room complete the ground floor accommodation.

Ascending the staircase, adorned with its charming Tudor Revival-inspired banister, the generous galleried landing provides a graceful sense of space. Two beautifully appointed bedrooms occupy the front of the home, each enjoying original features and delightful outlooks. One benefits from a private en-suite bathroom and useful storage, whilst the other enjoys its own en-suite shower room.

The luxurious family bathroom is a sanctuary of indulgence, featuring a striking freestanding bathtub taking centre stage, twin wash basins, elegant decorative details and a separate shower, creating a space reminiscent of a boutique country retreat.

The second floor continues the home's sense of comfort and charm, offering three further bedrooms. Two enjoy skylights that fill the rooms with natural light, while the largest bedroom boasts three skylights, creating a wonderfully bright and tranquil haven beneath the eaves.

Outside, the rear gardens have been thoughtfully designed to provide a private and enchanting escape. A stone-paved courtyard leads to an attractive block-paved seating area with raised planters and an impressive collection of exotic trees and plants. Delightful decorative features, including a reclaimed Victorian Bishop's Hat chimney pot and a vintage cast-iron pitcher pump, lend a sense of whimsy and nostalgia, making this outdoor space every bit as special as the home itself.

Rich in heritage, overflowing with character and lovingly enhanced throughout, this exceptional residence is far more than simply a house; it is a home with a soul – a truly rare and captivating sanctuary where every beam, brick and carefully chosen detail tells its own story.
