Situation

The Moorlands forms part of the highly prestigious Four Oaks Estate, one of the Midlands' most exclusive private residential enclaves. Renowned for its mature woodland setting, architectural integrity and enduring desirability, the Estate has remained one of the region's most sought-after addresses since its creation in the late 19th century.

The property enjoys a particularly special position, being in a secluded corner plot backing directly onto Sutton Park. A designated Site of Special Scientific Interest extending to over 2,400 acres, offering immediate access to open countryside, woodland walks and outdoor pursuits. Sutton Coldfield town centre provides an excellent selection of boutique shops, restaurants and everyday amenities, while nearby Mere Green offers a further range of independent cafés, bars and leisure facilities. The area is particularly well regarded for its schooling, with a number of highly sought-after state and private options close by. Four Oaks railway station offers convenient links into Birmingham and beyond.

Description of Property

Step beneath the elegant entrance canopy and into a home that immediately conveys quality, balance and considered design.

The reception hall sets the tone, where herringbone parquet flooring runs seamlessly underfoot, guiding you through a series of beautifully proportioned spaces. The drawing room is both refined and inviting, centred around a feature fireplace with a Gazgo log burner. A striking bay window draws in natural light, while bi-folding doors open effortlessly into the garden room beyond, creating a natural flow between formal and informal living.

The garden room is a standout feature, an exceptional, light-filled space where full-width glazing frames uninterrupted views of the landscaped rear gardens. Sliding doors to either side enhance the connection to the outdoors, while the continuation of parquet flooring reinforces the cohesion and quality found throughout the ground floor. The formal dining room, accessed via double doors, offers a more intimate setting, with a large window overlooking the gardens; equally suited to entertaining or everyday family use. Practical elements have been thoughtfully integrated, including a guest WC, cloak storage and a well-appointed utility room.

At the heart of the home lies an impressive open-plan kitchen, designed with both functionality and aesthetics in mind. A central island anchors the space, complemented by integrated Siemens appliances, sleek cabinetry and high-quality finishes by Porcelanosa. Sliding doors open directly onto the terrace, while a breakfast bar provides a natural gathering point for informal dining. This space flows seamlessly into a generous family living and dining area, creating a sociable and versatile environment for modern living. Beyond, a dedicated cinema room offers a more intimate retreat.

The property further benefits underfloor throughout ground floor, radiators to first and second floor together with air conditioning in several rooms and an integrated Sonos sound system, enhancing both comfort and everyday living.

Ascending the staircase, framed by oak detailing and glass balustrades you arrive at a striking galleried landing, where feature lighting and large windows create a strong architectural focal point.

The bedroom accommodation is arranged over two floors. On the first floor, five beautifully proportioned bedrooms offer flexibility for family life and guests. The principal suite is particularly impressive, enjoying views over the rear gardens and enhanced by a striking glazed apex, creating a wonderful sense of light and space. Bespoke blinds have been thoughtfully integrated, allowing the upper section to be opened to take in views towards Sutton Park while maintaining privacy. Complemented by a bespoke dressing room and a luxurious bath and shower suite, beautifully finished with Porcelanosa fittings, featuring twin basins, a freestanding bath and separate walk-in shower. Bedrooms two and three each benefit from en suite facilities, while bedrooms four and five are generously sized and served by a stylish family bathroom, all are finished with Porcelanosa sanitaryware and fittings. The second floor continues the sense of space, offering two further bedrooms. The principal room on this level features a walk-in dressing area and dual-aspect views, while the additional bedroom enjoys a combination of skylight and front-facing window. A further bathroom completes this floor, finished to the same high standard with views of Sutton Park. Externally, the property is approached via secure electric gates, opening onto a sweeping block-paved driveway framed by mature planting, creating a strong sense of privacy and arrival.

Gardens and Grounds

The rear gardens are a particular highlight. Landscaped, private and designed for both relaxation and entertaining and south-west facing. A generous terrace provides space for outdoor dining, complemented by a fully equipped outdoor kitchen, firepit and multiple seating areas. Steps lead down to an expansive lawn, bordered by established planting and offering a high degree of seclusion. A rare and highly desirable feature is the property's direct access onto Sutton Park via a private gate, allowing immediate access to over 2,400 acres of protected parkland, ideal for walking, cycling and outdoor pursuits, and further enhancing the sense of space and connection to nature.

A particularly special addition is the detached annex, designed to mirror the quality of the main house while offering exceptional versatility. Currently arranged as a home office and gym, this beautifully finished space features vaulted ceilings, extensive glazing, full air conditioning and direct access onto the terrace and gardens. It lends itself equally well to guest accommodation, studio use or wellness space, and significantly enhances the overall lifestyle offering of the property.

A home of this calibre reveals its full appeal upon viewing, where the quality of finish, sense of space and connection to its surroundings can be fully appreciated.
