Ground Floor

The property is entered via a welcoming reception hall, which provides access to the principal living accommodation and staircase rising to the first floor.

The impressive drawing room is a particularly attractive reception space, enjoying a wonderful relationship with the gardens. Three sets of French doors open directly onto the paved garden patio, creating an exceptional sense of connection between the interior and exterior and allowing the room to be opened naturally towards the gardens during the warmer months. The room is complimented with a wood burning stove recessed between the windows.

The kitchen is generously proportioned and designed as a sociable heart of the home. A substantial central island incorporates an inset sink and cooking hob, while bi-folding windows open directly towards the rear garden patio. This arrangement creates a light and informal space ideally suited to family living, entertaining and enjoying the outlook over the gardens.

A further hallway provides access to the remaining ground-floor accommodation.

Bedroom Three is a well-appointed double bedroom with views across the rear garden and the considerable advantage of an en-suite shower room, making it particularly suitable for guests or family members seeking accommodation away from the principal bedroom suite. The ground floor is completed by a utility room and ground-floor WC, providing useful practical accommodation.

First Floor

The staircase rises to a spacious first-floor landing, from which the remaining bedrooms and bathrooms are accessed. The principal bedroom is an impressive private retreat. The room benefits from 2 sets of floor to ceiling glass doors that give full uninterrupted views of the garden and the Belfry golf course beyond. Together with a luxurious en-suite bathroom incorporating a separate walk in shower. The combination of generous proportions and roof glazing creates a particularly light and peaceful principal suite. Bedroom Two is another substantial bedroom, enhanced by two skylights, while Bedroom Four also benefits from a skylight, providing excellent natural illumination to the upper-floor accommodation. A well-appointed family bathroom, incorporating a separate shower, serves the remaining bedrooms. Throughout the first floor, the roof and skylight windows add an appealing architectural quality while drawing natural light deep into the accommodation.

Garden Room and Workshop

A significant feature of Orchard Cottage is the provision of an excellent and most versatile garden room, party room or annex positioned within the grounds and enjoying a strong visual relationship with the garden. The room benefits from three electric skylights, together with a substantial glazed/open aspect towards the gardens, creating a versatile additional living or entertaining space. The garden room is complemented by a fitted kitchen and its own bathroom with a shower, making the building particularly adaptable for a variety of uses. A separate workshop provides further valuable ancillary accommodation and practical space, adding considerably to the versatility of the property.

Attached to the workshop is a purpose built wood store.

Gardens and Grounds

The approach to Orchard Cottage immediately conveys a sense of privacy and seclusion. The attractive red-brick frontage, beneath a pitched roof, is approached through a gated entrance and a generous private driveway, providing substantial parking and turning space. Mature hedging, established planting and substantial trees frame the frontage, while extensive areas of lawn further enhance the property's impressive setting. A covered entrance porch provides sheltered approach to the house, while the driveway continues alongside the property towards the detached garage and rear grounds. The detached double garage is particularly substantial and benefits from its own WC, providing both excellent vehicle storage and additional practical facilities. To the rear, the gardens are a defining feature of the property. Mature trees and established hedging create an exceptionally private and tranquil environment, with broad areas of lawn surrounding the house and providing an attractive setting for outdoor recreation and entertaining. A generous tiled terrace immediately adjoining the house creates an ideal outdoor seating and dining area and provides a natural extension to the principal living spaces. The positioning of the drawing room's French doors and the kitchen's bi-folding windows further enhances this connection between the house and garden. The garden room and workshop occupy a useful position within the grounds, while the surrounding mature planting, trees and hedging give the gardens a wonderfully established character. Beyond the immediate gardens, open agricultural fields provide a distinctly rural outlook, reinforcing the sense of space and seclusion enjoyed by the property.
